Experience

Professor of Programming I and Laboratory I aug 2021 - mar 2022

Universidad Tecnológica Nacional (UTN FRA), Avellaneda

I led the C language study program, taught and coordinated classes, controlled attendance, administered exams and corrected exercises. Our division had outstanding success with more than 60% of students passing in both subjects, maintaining a good average and advancing successfully in their career.

Assistant in the Initial Programming I entrance course jul 2021 - jul 2021

Universidad Tecnológica Nacional (UTN FRA), Avellaneda

I was an assistant in the study program to learn to program with JavaScript. I did attendance control, I corrected exercises and partial exams, in addition I helped with queries. I also taught some classes. Our effort allowed 63% of the students to enter the career.
